Two Rivers Reporter, Saturday, July 19, 1913 (part of Mrs. Baerwaldt's obit): OLD TIMERS - ". . . married in Germany. . Fred Baerwaldt . . came to this place from the old country in 1856. Mrs. Baerwaldt's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Rasch accompanied them . . They came in the same old tedious way by sailing vessel to New York. They brot (sic) a son William Baerwaldt. The Baerwaldt's took up their residence in a shanty on the Southside about where the school house is located. Here Mr. Baerwaldt engaged in the work of making shingles by hand. He used a bench and a draw knife in the work. He was able to make 900 or a thousand shingles in a day when he did a good day's work. He made a living at this work and also acquired some land. Mr. Baerwaldt served one year in the army during the Civil War. He died twenty-two years ago. His last years were spent farming."
