Der Nord Westen, 10 December 1896: "Death in Milwaukee Fri. morning of 68 yr. old Joseph Deubler, a former resident of our city, of a heart attack. He was born in Ischl, Upper Austria, came to America in 1852 and settled in Manitowoc where he operated a smithy until he became too old to work. During the last stages of the recent war, Mr.
Deubler served in Company D in the 45th Wisconsin Infantry Regiment. He enjoyed a good reputation locally and had many friends who will remember him even after he moved to Milwaukee 4 yrs. Ago. He leaves a widow and 4 grown children. His casket was brought here and buried Sun. afternoon at the city cemetery, attended by the Hermanns Sons of our city, and many friends."
