Der Nord Westen, 30 Sep. 1909, (From the correspondent in Mishicott, 28 Sep.):

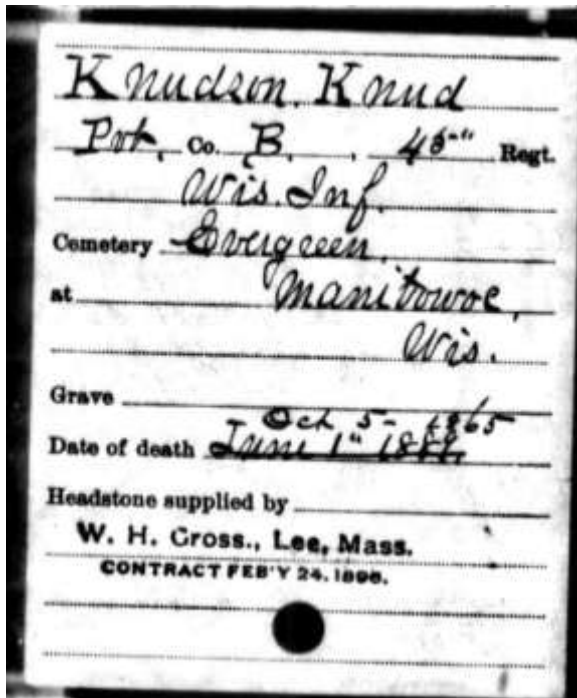

"Last week we reported that Mr. K. Knudson was quite ill, and now we must report his death. Mr. Knudson died Friday morning surrounded by his children. Until the last two weeks the old gentleman was always hale and hearty and had reached his 83rd year before suffering the heart disease which caused his death. He is survived by 3 children, all in good circumstances - Chas. Knudson of Lambkin, Texas, Mrs. C.A. Tuemstra of Belding, Michigan, and Miss Sophie Knudson who operates her father's business. The very large funeral was held Monday from the Norwegian Church in Town

Gibson. The G.A.R. Post, of which he was a member, gave their old comrade his final escort. Also, Mr. O. Christianson of Chicago spent several days in our city to attend the funeral of Mr. Knudson."
