Der Nord Westen, 29 March 1906:

"On Wednesday morning Charles Maxfeldt, a well-known resident of our city, was found dead in his bed, a stroke having taken his life during the night. The deceased was born in Germany 70 years ago, but for at least 50 years he has been a resident of our city. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and the local post of the G.A.R. will carry him to his last rest on Friday afternoon. His wife died about a year ago since which time Mr. Maxfeldt has been ill but not considered serious; during that period he lived with his only son from whose house the funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon."
