Der Nord Westen, March 1, 1894: "Capt. Peter Mulholland, a well-known and esteemed resident of our city, died Sun. at Trinity Hospital in Milwaukee following an operation. He was born Jan. 21, 1838 in Campsie, Scotland, and came to America with his parents where he settled in Town Meeme. During the war he served honorably in the 27th Wisconsin Infantry Regiment as captain of Company "K". Upon leaving service he settled in Manitowoc where he was elected sheriff. He went to the Dakotas for a while, but returned here in 1890. He served a post in the capital of Madison until last summer, when his health began to fail. He leaves his widow and 5 children. The body was brought here from Milwaukee and buried yesterday morning in the local Catholic Cemetery. The local G.A.R. Post and the Catholic Knights participated."
