

Johann W. E. Oehldrich
17th WI Infantry, Company G

Born: December 5, 1821 in Mecklenburg-Strelitz, Germany
Brother of Fredrich and M Oehldrich

Drafted: 30 September 1864 from Centerville—served as John Holdrig
Mustered Out: 16 July 1865

1870 Federal Census: WI, Manitowoc County, Centerville Twp/Fred Ohldrich family:
Johann Ohldrich, 50, At home, b Mickelburg

1880 Federal Census: WI, Manitowoc County, Centerville Twp/with Sister-in-law Mary and family:
John Oldrich, 59, Brother-in-law, Single, Retired, b Mecklinburg

1895 Veterans Census, Manitowoc County: John Oeldrick, Pvt G 17 Infantry, post office Cleveland

Died: August 17, 1896
Buried: Saxon Cemetery, Centerville, WI
Gravesite:

Johann W.E./Oehldrich/Geb./d. 5 Dec. 1821/Gest./17 Aug. 1896 Kinder von/Fredrich & M. Oehldrich

Der Nord Westen, 20 Aug. 1896: "Death early Mon. in Cleveland, of Johann Oehldrich. He was born 05 Dec. 1821 in Mecklenburg-Strelitz, and came to Wisconsin with his brother in the '50's. He was a member of Company G, 17th Wisconsin Infantry Regiment, and since he never married, always lived with relatives. In recent years he resided with Mr. Friedrich Hemb in Cleveland, whose wife was a niece of the deceased. The deceased, who died of cancer, was buried yesterday afternoon in the private cemetery in Centerville."

