1829-1906/Co. D/48th Wis. Vol. Inf."

Der Nord Westen, 11 Oct. 1906: "An old settler of our city and veteran of the Civil War, CHARLES REIMERS, died Thursday last week of consumption and was buried Sunday under the auspices of the local Odd Fellows Lodge of which he had been a longtime member. CHARLES REIMERS was born in 1836 in Mecklenburg, Germany, and came to America in 1859, settling here where he has lived ever since. He was married twice and he is survived by his second wife and 4 children: WILHELM, Mrs. WM. DUNN, EDWARD and HATTIE REIMERS. There were no children from the first marriage. During the war he served in Company 'D', 48th Wisconsin Infantry Regiment, for which service he received a pension, otherwise employed at the local chair factory from 1859 to 1886. Following the closure of that factory, he operated a small store on the South Side. His wife and daughter operated the store the past few years while he was ill."
