

Anton Selsemeier
45th WI Infantry, Company B

Born: February 16, 1826 in Prussia.

Immigration: 1852

Married: 1854 to Clara Zettler

Enlisted: October 10, 1864 as a Corporal, from Newton, WI, 40 year-old Farmer, 5'5", blue eyes, light hair.

Mustered Out: July 17, 1865 at Nashville, TN

The History of Northern Wisconsin, Vol II. Chicago: Western Historical Pub. Co., 1881, p. 533: ANTON SELSEMEIER Saloon, Manitowoc. He was born Feb. 16, 1826, in Prussia. In 1852, he came to Sheboygan, where he resided for five or six years. He then moved to Fond du Lac County, remaining there two years; from thence he moved to Calumet County, remaining there two years. About 1862, he again moved to Newton, Manitowoc County, enlisting in 1864 in Company A, 45th Wis. I., serving until the termination of the war. He then returned to Newton, and engaged in farming until about 1872, when he removed to Manitowoc and opened his present business. In 1854, he married Miss Clara Zettler, a native of Hesse-Darmstadt, by whom he has seven children, three sons and four daughters."

1885 Soldiers & Sailors of the Late War, Residing in Wisconsin, 1885: A. Selsemeier, Corporal, B 45 WI, Post Office Manitowoc

1890 Veterans Schedule, Manitowoc County: Anton Selsemeier, Pvt, post office Manitowoc, Block 269 Main Street.

Der Nord Westen, 10 March 1892: "Anton Selsemeier has been awarded a pension for his war service."

1895 June 20 Veterans Census of Manitowoc County: A. Selsemeier, Cpl B 45 Infantry, post office Manitowoc, WI

Died: March 10, 1896 /buried March 10, 1896/age 70 yrs/cause: paralysis of the heart

Buried: Evergreen Cemetery, Manitowoc, WI

Gravesite: W2-137-3: "Corpl./Anton Selsemyer/Co. B/45 Wis. Inf."

